

Photo by Jaanus Jagomägi

Dear BUP colleagues,

The new semester is now underway and we at the BUP's coordinating secretariat are working intensively with the planned activities, online courses and calls for 2022. It is truly an exciting time with a lot of things going on.

We would also like to extend an invitation to our participating universities to get support for your projects and events. Read further to find more information about the call for your university to get financial support to host a BUP event. That and much more in this week BUP weekly!

With best regards,

The Baltic University Programme's coordinating secretariat

BUP secretariat news

The Baltic University Programme announces

Support for young scholars

This year, we will support young scholars (PhD students, PhDs that have newly defended their thesis (max 2 years ago) and post doc. fellows) by inviting you to present your research at the BUP Symposium fall 2022 and give you the opportunity to publish a full paper in any of our special issues that BUP is the guest editor of.

The five most promising papers will be supported by the BUP (BUP pay the publication fee when the paper is accepted by the scientific journal).

Read more about the call on the BUP website

Apply here

Deadline 21 February

The Baltic University Programme invites Master students to

The BUP Master Thesis training

The BUP Master Thesis Training is a new concept, aimed to give master students an opportunity to get supervision from a senior from another BUP Participating University. Moreover, it will provide an opportunity to get feedback from other students in the region, build connections with other students, and become better acquainted with other academic perspectives in an interdisciplinary and intercultural environment. This training offers an interdisciplinary learning experience, with sustainability as a shared concept.

- 11-14 April 2022
- Riga, Latvia
- Open for master students in the process of writing their thesis

More information about the event can be found on the BUP website.

Register here

Deadline 31 January

The Baltic University Programme coordinating secretariat

Call for application to host a BUP event

This year BUP has an opportunity to give support to colleagues at BUP participating universities that are ready to host and organize a BUP academic event/activity that is of interest and relevance to sustainability and a Baltic Sea Region perspective, and that encourage interdisciplinary co-operations.

The BUP academic event/activity should be:

- aimed at students, university teachers, or researchers: A conference, a training, a workshop, a summer school, or similar for at least 25 participants
- announced for the participants from the BUP participating universities and potentially have participants from all BUP countries
- preferably organized during the calendar year 2022
- connected to the BUP Strategy and BUP Themes

For more information click the "To the Call" button or contact Lyudmyla Babak at the secretariat.

To the call

Deadline 28 February

Call for Papers

Call for scientific papers

Special Issue: Interdisciplinary Perspectives of Climate Change in the Baltic Sea Region

A special issue of Sustainability by MDPI (ISSN 2071-1050).

Guest editors: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Madeleine Granvik and Prof. Dr. Aistė Balžekienė

Deadline for manuscripts
20 December 2022

Call for scientific papers

Special Issue: Challenges and Possibilities for Sustainable Development in a Baltic Sea Region Context - 2021

A special issue of Sustainability by MDPI (ISSN 2071-1050).

Guest editors: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Madeleine Granvik and Prof. Dr. Walter Filho

Deadline for manuscripts
20 April 2022